Your Curriculum, Immediately Accessible

Teachers and students have immediate and equitable access to your curriculum through human-read e-books that provide both audio & text for accelerated learning.

Affordable and Effective

Optimize your curriculum investment and reduce costs by giving students reading below grade level access to the content they need to learn.

Easy to Use and Saves Time

Educators can assign the human-read e-books and students begin reading—snaps into educators' existing plans.

Learning Ally helps struggling readers access information so they can stay on par with their classmates and feel confident in their learning.

How the Audiobook Solution works

STUDENTS

- Download assigned or self-selected multi-media books via app onto a personal bookshelf
- Access the grade level content they need to learn anytime, anywhere, on any device, even when offline
- Learn while listening and simultaneously following text – with notetaking, dictionary lookup and more

TEACHERS

- Easily assign titles for students to read
- Monitor data about students' reading behavior and habits, individually and as a class
- Watch classroom participation, student confidence and reading rates soar

"It's reading via the ears.
It's...a thousand times better."
