Learning Ally 2021 Great Reading Games Contest Official Rules

1. Eligibility: Learning Ally Great Reading Games Contest (the “Contest”) is open only to enrolled Learning Ally schools of the fifty (50) United States and the District of Columbia. The Contest is subject to all applicable federal, state, and local laws and regulations and is void where prohibited. Participation constitutes entrant’s full and unconditional agreement to these Official Rules and Sponsor’s and Administrator’s decisions, which are final and binding in all matters related to the Contest. Winning a prize is contingent upon fulfilling all requirements set forth herein.

2. Sponsor and Administrator: Learning Ally, Inc., 20 Roszel Road, Princeton, NJ 08540.

3. Timing: The Contest begins on January 11, 2021 at 12:00 a.m. Eastern Time (“ET”) and ends on February 28, 2021 at 11:59 p.m. ET (the “Contest End Date”).

4. How to Enter: During the Contest, visit LearningAlly.org/GreatReadingGames, and follow the steps to login and complete entry. Upon submission, the selected school(s) automatically will receive entry into the Contest. Any attempt by a school to obtain more than the stated number of entries by using multiple/different email addresses, identities, registrations and logins, or any other methods will void that entrant’s entries and that entrant may be disqualified. Use of any automated system to participate is prohibited and will result in disqualification. In the event of a dispute as to any registration, the authorized account holder of the email address used to register will be deemed to be the entrant.

5. Awards: Decisions as to the administration and operation of the Contest and the selection of the potential winners is determined by the Administrator and are final and binding in all matters related to the Contest. Administrator will evaluate the score results after the Contest End Date. The score will only be calculated for those schools using Learning Ally’s audiobook reading app. Points will be given as follows:
   • 100 points for every day a student reads 20 minutes on a weekday (M, T, W, Th, F);
   • 50 points for every day a student reads 20 minutes on a Saturday or Sunday;
   • 10 points for every page read;
   • 1 point for every student that you have reading during the contest period.

New! 5 ways to Boost-Up your GRG Score prior to the start of the Games:
   • 200 points for every new educator that is added (Nov 9th - Jan 10th)
   • 1000 points for every unique educator that adds a book to a student’s bookshelf (November 9th - Nov 30th)
   • 500 points for every unique educator that adds a book to a student’s bookshelf. (December - January 10)
   • 5000 points and a digital school badge if you get 4 or more educators to add a book to a student’s bookshelf
   • 2000 points if this is your first year participating in GRG.

Points will be added together to determine your rank. Only schools that have at least 5 students with reading activity showing during the Contest period will be eligible to win. Schools with less than 5 students can still participate but those students will only be eligible for individual prizes.
6. Brackets: Participating schools will be placed into one of 12 brackets based on the name of the school, students’ grade levels and school’s previous reading activity. The Top 10 schools will be shown on a leaderboard in each bracket.

There are three bracket categories for grade level: elementary school (PK-5), middle school (6-8) and high school (9-12).

A school's grade category is determined by the name of the school or, in the scenario where Elementary, Middle or High does not exist in the name, the maximum number of students reading in a grade level. In the event that Elementary, Middle or High does not exist in the school name, the grade level with the highest number of students reading is then compared to grade categories; this then determines which grade category the school is placed in. (Example: School XYZ has 13 kids reading in grade 4, 12 kids reading in grade 5, and 19 kids reading in grade 6. Since 19 is the highest count of students reading, grade 6 is the MAX grade band and therefore this school competes in the middle school category.)

In the event that there is a tie across across all grade levels, the school’s grade category is simply the highest of the grade levels. (Example: School ABC School XYZ has 13 kids reading in grade 4, 13 kids reading in grade 5, and 13 kids reading in grade 6. All grades are tied but Grade 6 is the highest grade category; therefore this school competes in the middle school category.)

In the event that Elementary, Middle or High does not exist in the name, and there are no students reading, the school will be placed by default in the Middle School Blue bracket.

Under each grade level category, there are four brackets: purple, blue, green and orange. Schools are placed into these brackets based on their past reading activity with Learning Ally. The Administrator has completed in-depth analysis to place schools into a bracket in order to allow them to participate in the Contest alongside other schools that are most like them. The longevity of the school's participation with Learning Ally, the number of students reading, and the amount of reading were all taken into consideration. Decisions as to the placement of schools into a bracket is determined by the Administrator and are final and binding in all matters related to the Contest.

Odds of winning a prize depend on utilization of Learning Ally software (pages and days read) during the Contest Period and participation in the Secondary Award. 8. Secondary Award: Participating schools and students are eligible for a Secondary Award during the Contest. To be entered for the Secondary Award, the school must have the most creative social “brag” post about how their school is doing in the contest, how they are involving all students across the school, and/or showing their bookshelf or reading area posted on social media with the hashtag #GRG21. To be entered for the Secondary Award, the student must share a “shelfie,” a screenshot/photo of the books on their Learning Ally bookshelf on the app using the hashtag #GRG21. When their activity is posted using hashtag “#GRG21” on Twitter, Facebook, Instagram or Pinterest, the school or student will automatically be entered to receive the Secondary Award. By posting to #GRG21, participants are giving Learning Ally permission to share photos and quotes on social media, the Learning Ally website and educator materials. Decisions as to the administration and operation of the Secondary Award and the selection of the potential winners is determined by the Administrator and are final and binding in all matters related to the Contest. The Administrator may work with a celebrity author to determine the final winner of the Secondary Award. The winners will be notified and awarded a $100 gift card.

9. Prize Claim: The educator who signs up their schools for the Contest will receive an email if one of their schools or students wins. The educator must confirm their prize by filling out their shipping address after receipt of that email via an included online form. The form must be completed by March 31, 2020 to confirm the prize. If Learning Ally does not receive the shipping address by March 31, 2020, the prizes will not be shipped and the winning school forfeits their prize.

10. Publicity: Except where prohibited, participation in the Contest constitutes each winner’s consent to Sponsor’s and its agents’ use of winner’s school name, photograph, hometown and state for promotional purposes in any media, worldwide, without further payment or consideration. Students’ full name and information will not be shared unless the Administrator receives confirmation that the school has parent permission.
