Create Your Own Graphic Novel Grades 6–8

Choose a graphic novel to read and select a character that stood out to you.

Here are some choices you might like:

Which graphic novel did you read?

Now, draw your own graphic novel based on a character from the story that you read!

Before you start drawing, think about these things:

Character: Who is your character?

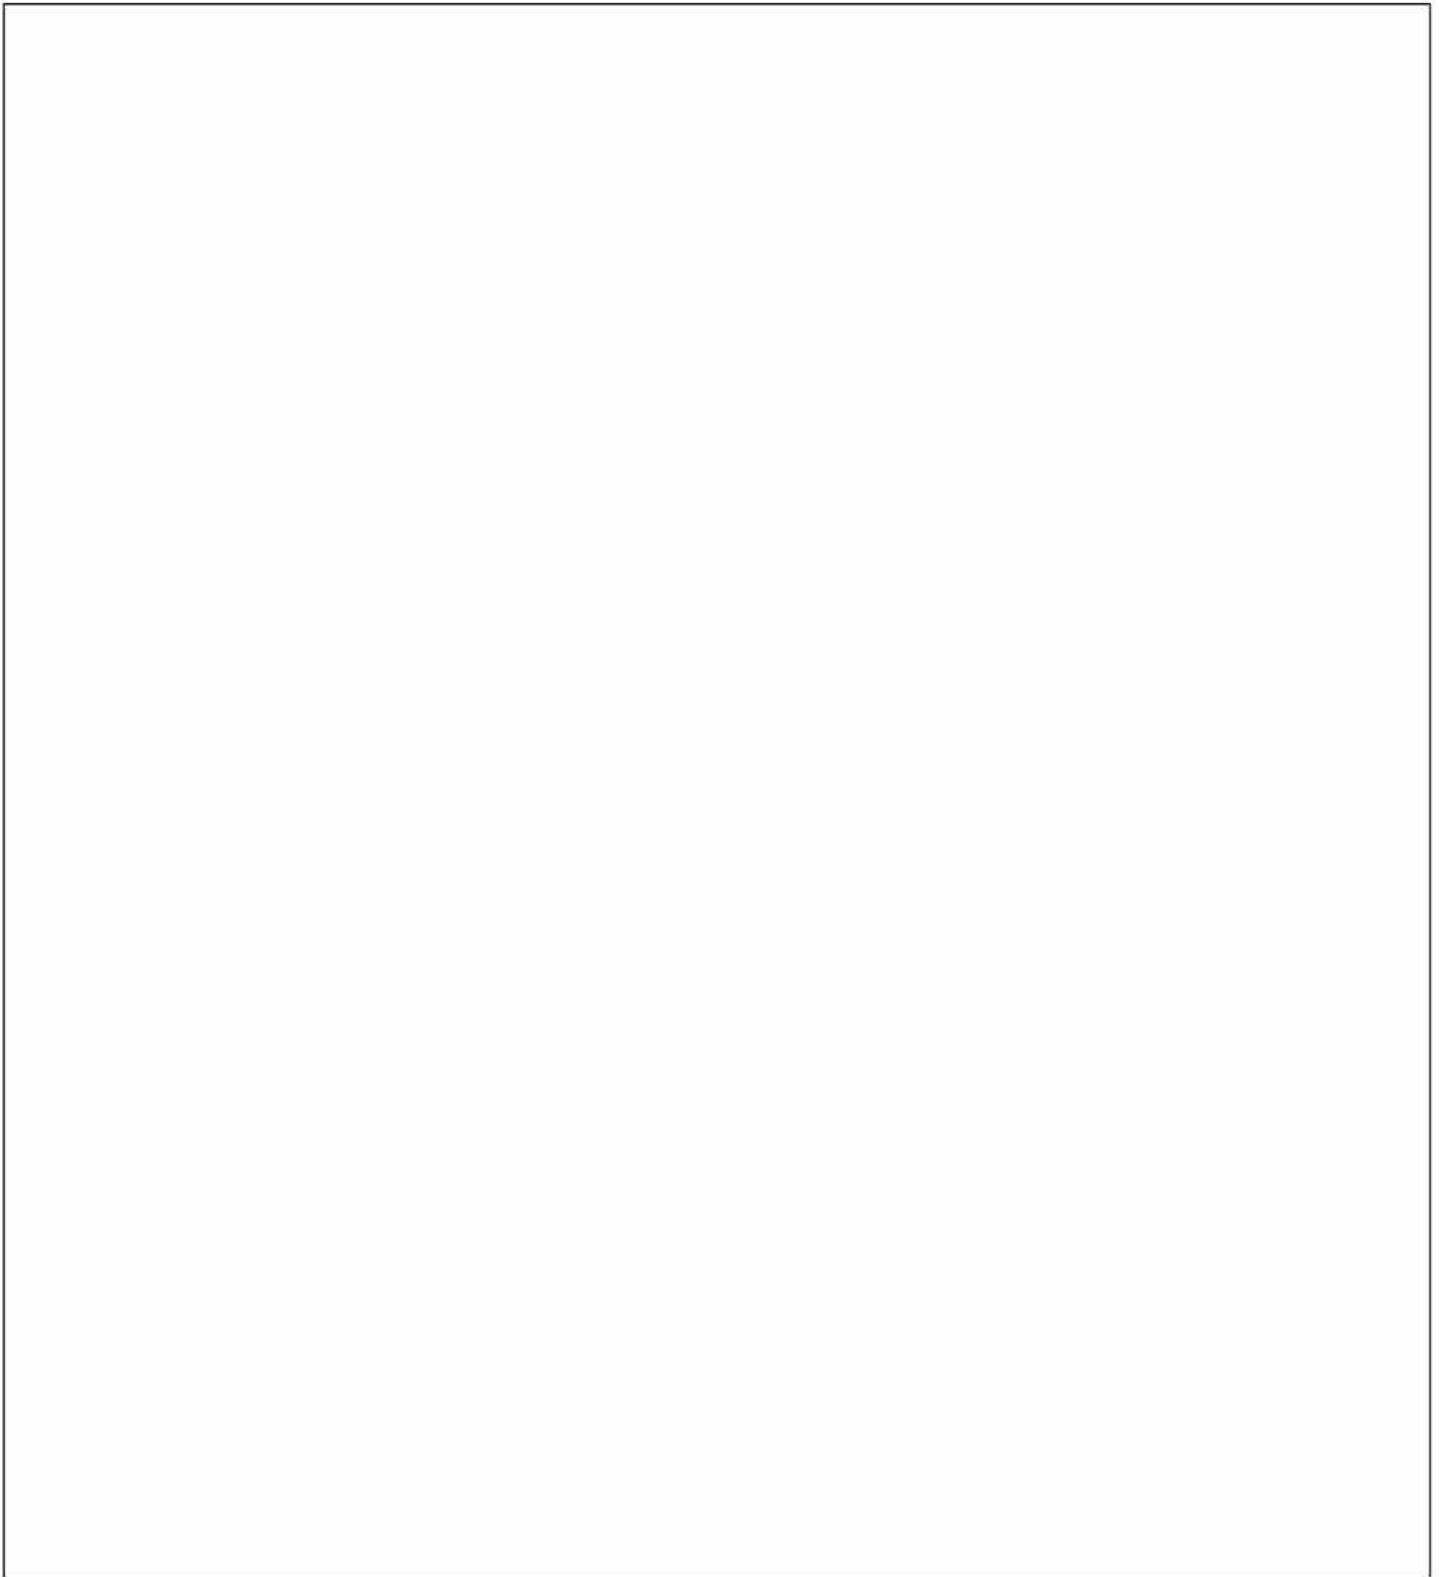

Setting: Where is your story set?

Plot: What event happens in your story?

Conflict: What is the challenge or problem in your story?

Resolution: How is the challenge overcome or the problem resolved in your story?
