

STUDENT GOAL SETTING WORKSHEET – HIGH SCHOOL

Creating reading goals is an essential part of developing the habit of reading. Through the process of setting specific reading goals, you are creating a plan that will help you build consistency of reading in your schedule. Your reading goals will ensure you stay accountable to yourself in order to succeed.

NAME: _____

GRADE: _____

GOALS FOR READING:

(Example: I want to read for 20 minutes a day 4x's a week.)

TO REACH MY GOAL, I WILL:

(Think about how you will select books to read, as well as when and where you feel most successful when you read.)

I WILL STAY MOTIVATED TO REACH MY READING GOALS BY:

(Ex: Checking in with a family member or friend, staying persistent, etc.)

STUDENT GOAL SETTING CALENDAR

Keep track of the progress you are making toward achieving your goal. Use this calendar to create a plan for reading which will help you stay motivated in order to achieve your goals. Mark the days you complete your reading goal and include the amount of time you read. You can also plan in advance for which days of the week you would like to read. Notice your reading patterns and habits and use this information to refine your goals.

SUN	MON	TUES	WED	THURS	FRI	SAT

I was most successful when... _____