

Keep your access to unlimited audiobooks!

As you transition to your new school or home learning program, access to audiobooks will be more important than ever so you don't fall behind on your reading. Don't lose access to your online bookshelf and continue receiving support and resources from Learning Ally!

Follow these simple steps:

1) Ask your new school whether they have a school or district-wide membership.

If the school has a Learning Ally membership, ask them to add you to the account and provide your username and password. If a school membership is not available, show them the bottom portion of this flyer.

2) Sign up for an individual membership at LearningAlly.org.

Use promo code COMM20 to receive a discount for your first year of annual membership.

SHARE THIS PORTION WITH YOUR NEW SCHOOL

PROVIDE YOUR STUDENTS WITH THE RESOURCES AND TOOLS THEY NEED TO WORK INDEPENDENTLY AND SUCCEED!

Offering unlimited access to more than 80,000 audio textbooks and literature titles—featuring human narration, enhanced navigation, and STEM titles from all major textbook publishers—a Learning Ally membership gives students access to the content they need to succeed in school and beyond.

Learning Ally services for educators include teacher training and support, and innovative new tools like Teacher Ally, our web-based platform that allows educators to create personalized bookshelves and track students' progress.

A quick phone call can bring Learning Ally into your school.

Call 800.221.1098 or email programs@LearningAlly.org.

LearningAlly.org/Educators
