

STUDENT GOAL SETTING WORKSHEET – MIDDLE SCHOOL

You can create your own unique goals that will help you become a stronger reader! When you set a reading goal, it helps you create a plan for when, how and why we want to read. You can always ask for help and support as you are working towards reaching your reading goals.

NAME: _____

GRADE: _____

GOALS FOR READING: _____

(Example: I want to read for 20 minutes a day 4x's a week.)

TO REACH MY GOAL, I WILL: _____

(Think about how you will select books to read, as well as when and where you feel most successful when you read.)

I WILL SHARE MY GOALS WITH: _____

(Who is someone you can share your goals with who will encourage you to meet your goals?)

STUDENT GOAL SETTING CALENDAR

Keep track of the progress you are making toward achieving your goal! Use this calendar to show you are on your way to reading success. Mark the days you complete your reading goal and include the amount of time you read. You can also plan out in advance which days of the week you would like to read.
